"I Have Lost The Receipt"

Thus spoke the man who was asked to settle a bill that he claimed to have paid a month previously. He had placed the receipt in his pocket with other papers and now could not find it.

He had paid cash, so could do nothing except pay the bill a second time.

That man learned a lesson from this incident—he now pays all his bills by check. In case of dispute about a paid bill, he can now use his cancelled checks as proof of payment.

Do you pay by check? It is the safe and businesslike way.

THE BEGINNING OF A BANK-NOTE

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.

The estate of Henry D Flood who died at his home in Washington, D C, on Dec 9th, last, is valued at approximately $87,000, according to the petion for ancilary letters of administration of the estate filed in probate court in Washington by Henry Flood Byrd, administrator. The widow, Mrs. Anna P Flood, and two children, Boiling D and Eleanor C. Flood are the heirs at laws. The above is taken from a Washington Dispatch, which is evidently erroneous. Mr. Flood's estate is probably worth half million dollars

A sudden attack of heart trouble caused the death Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock, of John D. Abbitt, for several years prominent in Norfolk business circles. Death occurred at his home, 521 Raleigh avenue. He was 57 years old.

So much sickness and sorrow in the land—this community within the last two months. Two of our best citizens and church members of Hebron have left this earthly tabernacle for what we believe their Heavenly home. We allude to the Bondurant family, which name is synonymous with kindness, thrift, honesty, religion and many other good qualities of which we cannot now speak. Truly they have had sorrow—losing a kind father and dear brother in such a short time, but saddest of all is the devoted wife and three children. It was beautiful to see the loving attention shown him, but God loved him more than they and took him to be at rest with Him. All have the sympathy of the community. He was buried in Hebron cemetery—impressive services conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. M. Street. The singing was beautiful and although the roads were bad there was a large crowd. Many relatives from Lynchburg, all of which attested to his popularity. J S Sr, J S Jr, and mother lie side by side, but the glorious reunion is now in heaven.

It was feared that the summer's drought would cause suffering in this section, but our noble "river" Wreck Island, furnished so much food both for man and beast that we hear nothing of distress.

So many of our old homes have been vacated for strangers.

Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family, and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Stacy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every household for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to prevent them from developing into serious troubles.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for a cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and am never without it."
